

POWER FOR LIFE.

---

COACH ERIN SILKENSON

Erin Silkenson started her love of swimming at the age of 5. She swam competitively for USA swimming, Taylor high school and eventually for Southwestern University. She coached her first summer league swim team at the age of 18 and has been coaching on and off since. In addition to coaching, Erin works for the Aquatics department for KATY-ISD.

Erin is devoted to her family, her husband, son Hayden and daughter Bailey and of course the dogs too. She also loves spending time with her friends and watching her daughter play volleyball.